

OUR FIRM

With an enviable 100-year track record of winning strategies and winning cases, Gresham Savage is the widely recognized leader for business, litigation, real estate, environmental and land use law in Inland Southern California. The firm's many attorneys, practicing in offices in San Bernardino and Riverside counties, provide wise counsel to local, regional and Fortune 500 companies.

One of the region's largest and most influential full-service law firms, Gresham Savage has a reputation for toughness, relentless execution and exceptional results in a wide range of industries and across a broad array of practice areas. Our long-term client relationships—some extending back as far as 70 years—reflect our focus on integrity, our meticulous attentiveness to protecting our clients' assets and our unparalleled personal service.

As the region's premier full service law firm, Gresham Savage offers expertise in employment, environmental, health care, land use, litigation, mergers and acquisitions, natural resources, real estate, transactional, and trusts and estates, as well as many other areas. Our attorneys counsel clients from many industries and the public sector, including mining, railways, transportation, real estate, retail and commercial development, redevelopment, health care, financial services, hospitality, food and beverages, energy, utilities, construction and banking.

The firm's clients are diverse, from regional businesses, public entities and special districts, to international companies. Gresham Savage's philosophy of service extends also to the communities where its attorneys practice and live. The firm has a long tradition of providing community service, leadership and pro bono services to many local and national causes and organizations.
